Customer Reviews

The Rise of Hitler is not a traditional history of the rise of the Third Reich. It's a reproduction of an early 1930s German propaganda piece titled Deutschland Erwache (Germany Awakes). The original book is a pictorial history of the early years Hitler and the Nazi party, and what little text there is is full of praise for the Reich. The translation of the original German is readable, although I did find it stilted and in need of a better editorial review. Having said that, the book is an excellent resource for anyone interested in Nazi propaganda. Also, There were some photographs in this book that I had never seen before.

Everything was fine. Thanks.
