Customer Reviews

I certainly wish there had been more reviews when I bought this, because I would have known that it is curiously NOT about Ernie Pyle! For some odd reason, he is only mentioned once and briefly in the book, which is actually about different veterans of World war II. I enjoyed reading their stories, which were indeed interesting, but the title of this book is misleading. I also thought it a bit odd that a book about WWII went off track several times and also talked about the Korean War and even Vietnam.

Unquestionably one of the best war history books ever published. Buy this book and get to know the personal lives of our military heroes. Bill Livingstone Goleta, CA
