Customer Reviews

"...recounts with lively detail the overall view of (the Civil War years) and sprinkles the narrative well with tales of buried treasures spread throughout 16 states. History buffs should enjoy the book as well as adventure seekers." - The Potomac News

Chuck Mills has a passion for history. He has roamed the world researching historical topics and is delighted to have lived most of his life in Northern Virginia, one of the most historic regions in the country. He now lives on the banks of the Potomac River on land once owned by George Washington. Chuck is the producer and co-host of Virginia Time Travel, a history television show that airs to some two million viewers in Northern Virginia. When not doing genealogical or historical research, Chuck can be found kayaking on the Potomac River.

Filled with vage stories of lost treasure. Guess you could read it to kids on a rainy day :-)
