Customer Reviews

PreS-K-Peppa and her brother George are the focus of this Spanish-language tale. After a fun evening filled with playtime in the mud, Peppa and George are still not ready to go to bed. When they bathe and brush their teeth, they make sure to take just a little longer than usual to delay their bedtime even further. Peppa and George want to hear many, many stories before going to sleep, and Papá and Mamá agree to read them only one. They choose one featuring their favorite monkey character, who, after going on many adventures, always ends his day by bathing, brushing his teeth, and going to sleep-just like Peppa and George! Small children will love seeing that some of their favorite characters are full of energy before bedtime, just as they are. A great choice, especially for children who are having trouble getting to bed at night. VERDICT Strongly recommended for libraries with Spanish children's book collections.-Selenia Paz, Helen Hall Library, League City, TX (c) Copyright 2011. I bought this book for my three-year-old daughter who loves stories before going to bed. I like to read to her in Spanish so she can learn a second language. She is able to understand the story and answer all my questions. The book has big colorful images and is very easy to read. I highly recommend this book.

My kids love this book for bedtime; holds the attention of a 2- and 4-year-old. Spanish-speaking husband hasn't even made any corrections! I like that it is written in the present tense, as opposed to past tense like the other Peppa book we have.

Great book. Our son loves when we read it in different voices. Shows all the usual nighttime rituals.
