good update on Bonhoeffer scholarship trends at a major turning point as WWII generation passes torch, and Bonhoeffer disciples revisits and re-evaluates the legacy for new emerging scholarship.

This book, while offering little in the way of new research, approaches the thinking and life of Bonhoeffer from several new perspectives, attempting to find theological and ethical currents which apply to the Post-Modern world. The essays are quite varied, and not entirely cohesive, but the book makes a good, and quite successful attempt to bring the theology of this seminal 20th Century thinker into our world today.
