High Stakes (LIBRARY EDITION)

Synopsis

[Library Edition Audiobook CD format in sturdy Vinyl case with cloth sleeves that keep compact discs protected.] [Read by Ralph Cosham -aka- Geoffrey Howard] Steven Scott is relatively new to horses. A successful, wealthy inventor, he takes up horse racing as a hobby -- a hobby that soon brings him winner after winner under the inspired guidance of his trainer, Jody Leeds. Currently both their reputations are wrapped up in a beautiful black hurdler named Energise. But just when Steven is winning at both women and horses, he discovers deceit in his own stables. Termination of the troublemaker marks Steven for his own termination -- and much sooner than he can imagine.

Customer Reviews

"[Francis] has the uncanny ability to turn out simply plotted yet charmingly addictive mysteries."

--Wall Street Journal

With a glass of champagne in one hand and binoculars in the other, the world of racing could seem a very cosy and civilized hobby. Especially when your horse has just sprinted past the winning post. But the pleasure of a day at Sandown is spoiled for Steven Scott when he sacks the trainer of his horses, a man he once thought of as a friend. For although on the surface Jody Leeds is a bright young workaholic, Scott suspects he's a crook. Racing may have its rewards but, as Scott finds out to his own cost, not all of them are innocent... or legal. An unfailing supply of well-managed twists Sunday Times --This text refers to the MP3 CD edition.

I read this book many years ago when it was first published. Now I am slowly getting rid of my hardback and paperback books in favor of Kindle in order to downsize. Unfortunately, for whatever reason, this book is not available on Kindle. Would like to add it to my Kindle collection. It's about time authors realized no Kindle means fewer sales, and certainly fewer sales of books that have been out for many years. It's about time for Dick Francis' estate to take back the rights to his books and get them out on Kindle so a whole new generation can enjoy his talent, and so those of us who have been fans for years can keep his books for re-reading on Kindle while downsizing our physical libraries.

Loved the book! I've enjoyed reading High Stakes and had a hard time putting it down. I'm not into westerns but needed something to hold my interest. With the reviews, I decided that it may be an exception to my rule. I wasn't disappointed.

I've enjoyed this book very much. All Dick Francis books were written pre-digital age. If you're fine with that you'll enjoy his books very much. This one is a favorite.

great for dick francis fans...great for new readers looking for a new writer.

this is one of my favorite dick francis/felix francis stories. however, this particular book had binding issues. there were about 30 pages missing. unfortunately it was the meeting of the 2 main characters. i.e. one of my favorite vignets, so i was pissed. however it's a great story, don't let my annoyance stop anyone from buying the book. as an engineer, i love stories about folks rising from their background and slaying the opposition/world by their skills and techniques.

I love all of Dick Francis' books and periodically re-read them. This order was to replace one that had fallen apart.

ALL Dick Francis books are excellent!

Dated but a good read. Lots of action and nice little love story on the side. A good man gets friends and gets even.
