He believes her when she tells her story and after another attempt on her life in the hospital, helps her escape. While on the run with this fascinating woman, Jason finds himself falling in love and she seems to return the sentiment. Praise for Lethal Homecoming - Book 1 in the Tanner Hollow series: "Edge of your seat, page-turner, must read. I'm just never disappointed when I pick up a Lynette Eason book. Even in a novella, you'll find yourself wrapped up in her characters. Simply can't wait for the next in series!" • "T. Shoemaker" verified purchase reviewer

Customer Reviews

The book gets off to a fast pace and is very well written. Lynette Eason, as always, does a great job. The only negative point I have, and the reason I rated the book 4 stars instead of 5, is the fact there is very little mention of God in this book. I exclusively read Christian books not only because they don't have foul language and sex scenes that I don't want to read, but also because Christian novels discuss the difficulties we all face every day with reconciling our faith in a non-Christian world and how we have to grow in our faith as we mature in our walk. Unfortunately there was none of that in this novel. In fact you would be hard pressed to know this was a Christian novel at all. However, that being said, it was fast paced, well written, and interesting until the end. So I gave it 4 stars.

This a five star!! Another intense book by Lynette. Worth reading. The main characters Jason and Lilly dealing with suspense, a twist, that I did not expect, how that God is all ways there.

Author Lynette Eason has done it again. This novella will have you on the edge of your seat. Another book you'll want to move to the top of your to-be-read list!

Good story, neat unexpected ending, but too short for the price. Her other, lengthier books are too expensive, which is disappointing. I thoroughly enjoyed her older books which were reasonably price. Guess I'll try to find some at the library.

This story has strong characters and a strong storyline filled with mystery, intrigue, suspense, and many twists and turns. It kept me guessing until the very end with a surprise twist at the end. A happy ending too.

Again Lynette Eason has kept me turning pages as I just had to see how Lilly and Jason would outwit and overcome. If you enjoy a fast paced read, this is for you.

Wonderful clean enjoyable plot. Very believable and descriptive scenes. Great clean love scenes. I would recommend this mystery for young teenagers.

I loved this book can't wait to read the next book in this series. Definitely a heart pounder, couldn't put it down.
