Customer Reviews

Mark Zegarelli holds degrees in math and English from Rutgers University. He is the author of four puzzle books for Sterling as well as Logic for Dummies (Wiley Publishing). He is currently at work on a new book, Basic Math and Pre-Algebra for Dummies (also Wiley). Mark currently splits his time between his hometown of Long Branch, NJ, and his adopted city of San Francisco, CA.

These are interesting and fun to do and great for keeping mind occupied while waiting.

Good puzzles to stimulate your brain. Nice spiral bound book.

As a family, we love logic puzzle books and this one was challenging but not overly difficult.

Very challenging! These were great for my flights across the country.

Awesome puzzles that gradually become more difficult. The set up of them is similar, but like I said, they gradually become harder and the stories/topics change which helps hold interest.

love this - will probably buy more

Fantastic. Best logic puzzle book I've found. Zegarelli knows how to create twists on the standard puzzles that keep you engaged. The use of humor, innovation, and seriously challenging puzzles is perfect.

everything great
