"I would recommend this text to college instructors of all levels. It fits the needs of the students and the needs of the instructor.""I have found this text to be very appropriate for the teaching of students engaged in a two-year criminal justice program for ten years. I would never seriously consider using any other texts. [This text] not only receives high praises from me but my students as well."

Linda S. Miller is the former executive director of the Upper Midwest Community Policing Institute (UMCPI), as well as a former sergeant in the Bloomington, Minnesota, Police Department. She was with the department 22 years, serving as a patrol supervisor, crime prevention officer, patrol officer, and police dispatcher. Sergeant Miller has been a member of the Minnesota Peace and Police Officers Association, the International Police Association, the Midwest Gang Investigator's Association, the International Association of Women Police, and the Minnesota Association of Women Police, and she was a member of the People-to-People's Women in Law Enforcement Delegation to the Soviet Union in 1990. She is also a frequent presenter to community groups and an experienced instructor.The late KÃ¤ren Matison Hess, PhD, wrote extensively in law enforcement and criminal justice, gaining a respected reputation for the consistent pedagogical style around which she structured each textbook. She co-authored multiple editions of MANAGEMENT AND SUPERVISION IN LAW ENFORCEMENT, CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION, JUVENILE JUSTICE, and INTRODUCTION TO LAW ENFORCEMENT AND CRIMINAL JUSTICE in addition to CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM; much of her work and influence remains unchanged in this new edition.Christine H. Orthmann holds an M.S. in criminal justice from the University of Cincinnati and has been writing and researching in various aspects of criminal justice for over 20 years. She is the co-author of numerous Cengage Learning textbooks, a former reserve officer with the Rosemount, Minnesota, Police Department, and a member of the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences (ACJS), the American Society of Criminology (ASC), the Text and Academic Authors Association (TAA), and the National Criminal Justice Honor Society (Alpha Phi Sigma).

I used this text book for my Community Policing class in college. it is a great book with tons of information. it can be a little hard to follow at times but there are some awesome concepts and ideas presented. if you are interested in using this book for a class you need to teach about this subject or you just want to know some community policing type stuff I would definitely recommend this book to you.

Amazing textbook that I used for my community college criminal justice class. It introduced me to the theory and practice of community policing and made me aware to new and better thinking for social issues.

OMG!!!! This has to be the worst book ever written. Reads like a retired police officer who has nothing to do but give advice wrote this book and beside him he had a thesaurus to make him/her look and sound smarter. Textbook reads like a lecture. you feel like you sitting in a auditorium and this old guy is in front of you talking and you doing your best to stay awake. But i need to read this or i wont get promoted.

Lots to read, but very informative and I like how they (purposely?) mixed the chapters up. There might be a long somewhat boring chapter/ topic, but then the next one was shorter and a more interesting topic.

The book was a great summary of Community policing.However, it is obvious that the book was not written by someone with law enforcement field experience.I would still recommend to anyone who wants an overview of Community policing.

Bought this for a test for a Sgt position. Overall the book is okay. The test is ridiculous.

Came as expected

This is for my granddaughter studying social work
