As a former patient of Dr. Salah Rubayi, I can say unequivocally that he is one of the most knowledgeable (if not THE most) surgeons in this specialized field. He has operated on thousands of patients over his forty-five years, taking people with some of the most complex pressure ulcer problems and restoring them to good health. His expertise can only be eclipsed by his enormous heart and desire to serve. He has eschewed opportunities to make much more money doing cosmetic surgeries in order to focus on this underserved population.
