Customer Reviews

Satan affirmed my faith. I'm eager to graduate law school this month & start my own practice.

Unsurprisingly, Satan's generous advice is well written & flawlessly delivered. Thanks to this book, I have little doubt that I'll soon have my own minions to command.

I bought this for my budding attorney. She loved the books I ordered for her, this being among them. She was happy to have additional resources to further her career. And she loves the dark side. Worked!

Poorly written. Bought it as a "joke" for someone considering taking law courses.

Gave it to my law school classmates as a gift and everyone was cracking up! Great, quick, funny read!

The best part of the book is contained in the blurbs. Extremely short - a 15 minute read, with a few clever quotes but no real substance. The author makes his point by marketing something of little value by misdirection and innuendo with the result - he has made some fast cash.

Good advice with a dark, sarcastic twist. This focuses mainly on basic building blocks of practice. Excellent reading during bar prep.

Recommended reading before you apply to law school, if you don't like this book don't go.

works good very funny
