Haunted Charleston: Stories From The College Of Charleston, The Citadel And The Holy City (Haunted America)

Synopsis

On the historic streets of Charleston, where true life is stranger than fiction, narrators Ed Macy and Geordie Buxton leave embellishment by the wayside to let these stories--in ghastly and sometimes dreadful detail--tell themselves. Combing through the oft-forgotten enclaves of the Holy City, Macy and Buxton bring readers face to face with a group of orphans who haunt a College of Charleston dorm, a Citadel cadet who haunts a local hotel and the specter of William Drayton at Drayton Hall Plantation, to name just a few. Based on historic events and specific details that are often lost in most ghost stories, this collection of haunting tales sparks curiosity about what figure might still be lurking in the alleyways of Charleston's storied streets.

Customer Reviews

Well written and tidy short stories. As a newfound member of the Charleston locals, I crave information about my fascinating new home. This book fit that bill for certain. My own humble encounter with a Charleston ghost lends credence to the books' accuracy.

Very interesting and good read on the haunts of Charleston! I took a Haunted Harbor ghost tour that Mr. Macy hosted a few years ago and it was very interesting and led me to this book. I highly recommend this book.

The book reads as if Ed was telling you the story in person. Love the history of the city & glad someone did the research to continue the stories & wrote it down.

very pleased with this book - full of fun and interesting info plus in new condition !

Good book for anyone interested in the paranormal great book lots of great stories

I love the local area history and its scary counter parts this book has to offer. I read this book before going to Charleston on a cub scout trip.

I wanted this book since my son's house is in it.. I had bought one on before, but I needed another since a visitor "wanted" it.
