Customer Reviews

Nice intro to Pittsburgh, as a one time resident (23 years) there was nothing new here for me, some local humor. I would recommend it to new residents

I had to buy this for my son who is a NATIVE Pittsburgher and has lived in Philly for ten years now. Said it was THE PERFECT GIFT and will start teaching his wife and little boy some of our PITTSBURGHEEZ:)

Great product, as expected, fast shipping

We're from Pgh, now in New Jersey so it was a gift for a student going there. Thought it could put more of the Pittsburghese in it. Expensive

Pathetic attempt at self-publishing. No page numbers. No table of contents. No visible organization. It's just page of cheap paper after page of cheap paper of double-spaced babbling, it looks like direct quotes from web pages mashed together with the word PITTSBURGH sprinkled in for good measure. Take a hint - the author hasn't even put his or her name on the book, so they know it's an embarrassment. Any reviews higher than one star are clearly purchased - nobody who has ever held or looked at a real book would ever find anything to appreciate in this poor waste of dead trees. What's sad is this was the second of two books I purchase to be a gift for a new resident that helped me tremendously. I thought I was getting her a couple cute little local books to help her settle in. Nope, I wouldn't even give this (or the other, the Bucket List) to people I really do want to go back to Cleveland (or Philly). Really disappointed.

I think we all need this!

Very funny and informing.

Yinz will love this n@
