Ally And Griffin (Middle School)

Synopsis

EXCERPT: I dab at the wound on Griffin's face with a cloth. I whisper timidly, "Does it hurt?" "Yes," Griffin says with a smile. I murmur, "You're not really acting like it." He laughs softly. With a teasing glint dancing in his eyes, he tilts his head the slightest bit. "Do you want me to cry, Cookie-Girl?" He's only teasing. But still, his injuries look PAINFUL. He smiles ruefully. "Look, I'm trying to act tough for you, okay? Yes, it hurts. Bad." His grin quirks with amusement. "But having you be my nurse is pretty much worth the pain right now." Purr! Sharp cushioniness slices through me. Griffin goes on with a smirk, "But yes, it hurts. So, maybe don't watch me too close, okay?" "I may lose my cool nickname." He says it like he doesn't really think the nickname is that cool. Like he's just being ironic. But doesn't particularly care for it or like being called it. I arch my eyebrow. "You mean, 'The Grief-Master'?" He kind of grimaces as the words spill from my lips. Glancing quickly at me, he says, "You know I don't really cause grief to people, right?" He says it softly. "I mean, I cause it to the other team, yeah, but not to girls." Then he adds softly, "I wouldn't cause you grief, Ally." Summary: When Ally is forced to help a troublemaker from her middle school (tough, hockey playing, Griffin Piper), she soon realizes that it's her heart that is in trouble. Because handsome Griffin Piper isn't what he seems. At all. Yes, he's tough (totally). But he's also the sweetest boy on earth. And he soon has Ally's heart turning to mush any time he just looks at her and he looks at her a LOT!! Ally isn't sure her heart can take Griffin's gratitude or his lingering, twinkling stare. It's like he can read her crush-y heart like he knows it's going to explode just from him looking at her but that doesn't stop him from doing it. A lot. In fact it seems to be exactly what he wants to make Ally's heart pound. For him. As a bonus, there is also a short story included in this book about a boy in middle school (Matt) and how he secretly has a crush on his best friend, Nicole. Update: This book now also has Melanie Marks' new middle school story: "Friend or Enemy? (... or Crush?)" By Melanie Marks, the author of His Kiss; and Fall For Me (plus a lot of other books) Newest Books: "Matt and Nicole (Middle School)"; and "Summer and Mason (Middle School)" From the author of Best Friend Wars; and Slumber Party Wars

Customer Reviews

I loved this book and how she thought of what would have been if she saw him in a dark alley and "nursed" him. I love all of Melanie Marks books especially his kiss and this one. And it's cool how this was set during Christmas time which makes the story way more romantic than it already was. So basically there is in high school where Ally gets bribed into kissing Griffin, and one where she sees him in an alley and it's goes from that. Overall I loved it!

I love these characters, but I don't like that author is making new books and completely changing the history/storyline of the characters. This book is ally and griffin IF THEY had met in middle school instead of later. So, if u read this book it changes the history of her future books like Her Kiss, His Kiss and Griffin #1&2. If u want a new story use new characters, don't use the same characters but change their history together. Annoying. Plus ,even though I like many of her characters (ally&Griffin, the love triange in the Finn series, etc), she retells their stories throughout multiple books. She doesn't add new info or 'background' info, she simply retells what we already know, which is annoying...we have already read it. She also writes kinda of immaturely. I know she is writing about middle schoolers and teens but her repeated overuse of the same phrases gets annoying. I wish I didn't have so many complaints, but truth is I am only complaining because I really like her books, but then I feel she ruins them by retelling the same story over and over through other books. I wish she would give new material instead of regurgitating old material we already read (or know about of the characters), give us NEW material please.

love all ally and griffin books always look forward to them. would love to read on with them married or getting there

I love any stories that involves Ally and Griffin!!!! :-)

i love this book! you should definitely read it! it was so interesting and i literally couldnt put it down!i got the sample but then had to buy the book.i love how the people in this book seem so real.it was funny and i loved all of it.i definitely recommend this to all girls who love to read something that you cant put down.id say this is good for ages 10-15 ish.i loved this book!!!!!!

ive read her kiss, his kiss , griffin, and im currently reading Griffin 2 but i like this one the bestive also read highschool boys

Well, the book was ok, I guess...I liked the beginning but slowly It became more complicated and it was hard for me to catch on. If you want to read a romance book with similar charater but is waaay better then check out "Summer+Mason".:)

It was totally worth reading. I read it in 2 hours and usually i can't stand romantic books. Loved it
