Customer Reviews

This first edition of an annual guide devoted exclusively to historic B&B accommodations includes over 2000 inns and guesthouses. Most entries provide the usual information about location, cost, etc. There are no ratings. Some entries are very basic, while others are richly descriptive. The handsome pen-and-ink sketches are a plus. Books with broader coverage, e.g., Pamela Lanier's Complete Guide to Bed & Breakfasts, Inns and Guesthouses (LJ 10/1/84; Muir, 1986. rev. ed.), will be more useful in most libraries. Recommended for appropriate larger collections. Carolyn I. Alexander, USACDEC Technical Information Ctr., Fort Ord, Cal. An attractive, friendly consumer directory. Well organized, comprehensive in scope and attractively presented. --Morgan Rand Review

We used to use these books every year but got away from it as family life became increasingly busy. Decided to be intentional about taking some time off together this fall. What a deal. We found an adorable cabin w/ a wonderful restaurant & even spa facilities w/in a 2-hour drive. Two nights/three days for a little over $200. There is a whole range of types of places to stay, amenities, and prices. A nice selection of inns from, I think, every state. This allows you to do something special at half the price! Your marriage is worth it!!

I already did a followup reply, but again this is a wonderful book! In perfect condition. I have delt with for a few years now and have had excellent results.

More an advertising gimmick than an informational guide.

We not only liked this for ourselves but we have given these for gifts. It is very descriptive and gives you so many different options.

This was exactly what I was hoping - it was quickly sent and in new condition! This was a gift and the recipient was delighted!

It's an excellent guide but I also wanted something more descriptive of individual houses. This was only book you had on this subject. More options would have been nice.

I ordered edition #24 as you can see and I received edition #4' which is very outdated. I was so displeased that I just threw it Way. This review was dissatisfaction with the seller "5K Books" and not with American Historic Inns who publishes the book. I love these books and wanted the latest edition #24, the seller, 5k Books advertised Edition 24 for sale and sent edition #4 totally misrepresenting the sale. American Historic Inns contacted me and made my purchase good and sent me the correct Edition at their cost which was wonderful and not at all their responsibility. I STRONGLY RECOMMEND THIS BOOK AND I LOVE INNS. Thank you for helping me correct this review.

My wife and I purchase several of these books every year. They are an excellent deal, as each book comes with a certificate for a free nights stay in one of the B&B's listed within the book. As we travel quite frequently, we first peruse the Bed & Breakfasts and Country Inns book to find a B&B in the area which we will be traveling to, and then book a two night stay at the B&B, as the second night is free after one paid night, with the use of the certificate which is included within each and every book. This has saved us a significant amount of money over the many years since we first came upon this B&B gem. As well, it has aided us in the discovery of some absolutely fantastic B&B's, which we may not have otherwise found. If you enjoy staying in B&B's and Inn's when you travel, and you like saving some serious cash in the process - - than you will find this book, or in our case, several copies of this book a must have.
