King (Rogue Rebels MC)

Synopsis

I can't let her go, no matter what. It's just another job for the Club. Until I walk in and see the one girl that got away. Kidnapped, tied up, and gagged. Oh hell no. Nobody touches Valentina. The only thing she should be tied to is my bed. I remember how she used to scream my name. How could I forget? Those legs, those eyes, those lips... I know her father sold her to the gang. But she wasn't for sale. Try to take her from me. My brothers and I? We'll kill you. I'll make them all pay for what they did to her. Even her father. I'm finally going to take what's mine. King is a super steamy motorcycle romance. It has a HEA and NO Cliffhanger. There are a few bonus books for your reading pleasure. Enjoy!

Customer Reviews

Jesus was a teenager when his father sold him to the Muerte Viviente gang. Jesus was forced to fight in their ring and run petty crimes with other kids for the gang's pleasure and gambling purposes. He had wanted Valentina, the daughter of the leader of the gang, from the first moment he laid eyes on her. When Jesus was older he and Valentina lost their virginities together. After being together for a few weeks, Jesus was offered a chance at a better life by becoming a member of the Rogue Rebels MC and he wanted Valentina to come with him. Valentina felt like that would be betraying her father, so instead she told Jesus to go and she ended up running away.

Valentina's been gone for ten years and her father contacts her to tell her he is sick. She decides to go home to see him, but things have changed. Jesus now goes by the name King and he has never forgotten Valentina. With her father being sick someone new is in charge of the gang and Valentina is not safe. Read this book to find out what happens when Valentina goes home, is she safe or will this be a huge mistake? Also find out what King does when he finds out Valentina is back. This is a great story with excellent characters and truly a must read.

Jesus aka KING is all man and just the perfect guy. He's been in love with Valentina for years and they were each other's first everything, except he wasn't supposed to be with her and for reasons you'll find out she ran... for 10 years. But their love never faded. In many ways it made it stronger. Someone had her kidnapped and King don't stand for that. Their story is hot and full of suspense. Even after all the years the sex is so amazing and intense. So beware of frequent sweats. You may need a cold shower after. This book has all you could need in a romance and the scene with Valentina on the phone with her dad is just so funny. I received an ARC for an honest and voluntarily review.

King (Jesus) and Valentina | Not exactly Romeo and Juliet | Thank goodness. He was her first, her love | but she was the daughter of the leader of Muerte Viviente, his gang. Off-limits. And he wanted out, for there was no honor in Muerte Viviente, where he had known only pain. But when he joined a rival gang, the Rogue Rebels MC, and asked her to come with him, she said no. It felt like betrayal of her father, a man she feared, hated | and loved. So, she ran away from both of them. And she stayed away. But for ten long years she never stopped wanting Jesus, never stopped loving him. Still dreamed of what they once had. And Jesus never stopped dreaming of her, either. Now her father sends for her. He's very sick. He might be dying. And as soon as her plane lands | well, shortly after, she's kidnapped. Seems her daddy owes his former gang a bunch of dough. She just might be the payment. Okay, Valentina-- did it even occur to you that this might be a ploy? Huh? And oh, my. How Jesus, now known as King, has changed over the years. He's come into his own. He's big and buff and fierce. The better to rescue you, my dear. Probably the best part of this story for me was that King's love for Valentina never wavered. He remained fiercely and steadfastly hers. And he would protect her against all comers and at all costs. 5 stars.

Jesus was sold to the Muerte Viviente gang when he was young. Jesus was forced to fight in a ring against other kids for the Muerte Viviente. Valentina was the daughter of the leader of the Muerte Viviente. Jesus and Valentina started sneaking around. They were each others first and wanted to be together forever. But as every story goes, life got in the way of their dream. Jesus was offered a chance at a better life by becoming a member of the Rogue Rebels MC and Valentina wanted to get away from her fathers life style, so she ran away to Connecticut. Valentina's father contacted her after 10 years to let her know that he was sick, so she decided that she would go home to see him. Once she arrived, she was kidnapped. Jesus is known as 'King' in his new life with the MC. He wants to stop the fighting rings that he was subjected to as a kid. When him and his buddy go to rescue the kids he see Valentina sitting ring side. Will King be able to save her? What kind of problems is this gonna cause the MC and Muerte Viviente? Will they get to fulfill their dream of being together? I was given a ARC for an honest review of the book. I love Nicole Elliot! Her books keep you on the edge of your seat.

Two people who still connect as strongly as they did ten years ago. A great MC book with a fantastic plot that captivated and entertains. Both characters were developed well and the storyline flowed well. Highly recommended . I voluntarily received an arc of this book.

Two people who still connect as strongly as they did ten years ago. A great MC book with a fantastic plot that captivated and entertains. Both characters were developed well and the storyline flowed well. I voluntarily reviewed an advanced reader copy of this book.

Good book, quick read. King was sold by his father to the mc for child fights, Valentina was the boss's daughter. Shortly after finding each other and having relations for the first time, King was rescued by a different good mc, and Valentina took her chance for freedom and ran away. Valentina receives word her father is ill, she comes back and is kidnapped. While trying to save more children from the fights King spies Valentina being held captive, he rescues her and their affair continues. More bad things occur while the two lovers are finding happiness with each other. It's a good little story I enjoyed. I received this book as an arc copy for my honest opinion.

I voluntarily reviewed an ARC of this book. This is an awesome second chance MC romance. Well thought out story, plot flowed effortlessly. Great characters, even the bad gang. King/Jesus and Valentina have loved each other forever even though they haven't seen each for 10yrs. Their love has lasted all the years and was great to see a biker who wasn't a manwhore...Definitely recommend this book, no cliffhanger, HEA.
