Customer Reviews

"Here's a stunning collection of projects featuring the techniques of goldwork and stumpwork."Â

Machine Knitting Monthly"This is a 'how to do' book, covering the basics of goldwork."Â workshopontheweb.com"No embroidery has quite the lush, rich appeal of goldwork. . . .

There are not many books on the subject around, so another one is always welcome, especially when it is as beautiful as this one."Â Pentacle"This is a beautifully presented project book combining two traditional embroidery techniques&#151;goldwork and stumpwork."Â Bead Society of Great Britain"An inspiring technical and creative book for beginners and accomplished embroiderers."Â

Merseyside Embroiderers Guild"Will inspire both beginners and experienced embroiderers."Â

Alison Cole is an embroiderer with more than 20 years of experience.

I tried goldwork for the first time by using this book. The projects are very complete and well laid out so you can follow them.

I am new to goldwork and this book has very clear illustrations and directions. As with the other reviewer, I love this book.

The book is in spectacular condition. I like the the content, explanations are very detailed, the pictures and photos are just beautiful. In other words, I love this book.

This book was published in 2006 by Alison Cole - it is still in stock and available through the author's website
