Book by Fleisher, Brian

Ive contacted Beckett on this book. they tell me they will notify me but they never have. ive reordered a different baseball book & still waiting on it!5or 6 weeks ago.Everything ive tried to look up is not in this book We're talking 3D sporting news Kellogs Wonder bread it does come in handy if you're only interested in regular cards.

This product provides a guide to the prices for baseball cards. There is not a table of contents which makes it hard to find specific cards. After extensive searching for a specific brand with no luck, I emailed the company and learned that brand was not included. This is not an all inclusive baseball card price guide. I was told that I would have to also buy their Baseball card Almanac.

I love baseball cards

Of all the things one might buy a baseball price guide, for me it is to help focus on all of the Minor League cards that I have collected. Alas, this Beckett does not address these cards at all. Not more that I can say about it.

Could have more card makers other than that great easy to use. I got cards made by a company not in this book I have to refer back to my older beckett doesn't have everything. I would recommend the Beckett Almanac of Baseball Cards & Collectibles. Seems to have everything instead of some things like the Price Guide. Mostly the same as the monthly magazine but a little bit more insert stuff in Price Guide.

Bought this for a grandson, who, at 15, discovered my deceased brother-in-law's baseball card collection that he started about 1955. My grandson is spending hours reading and looking at his priceless collection that my wife gave to him.

Glad they saved the 10 index pages. The book isn't comprehensive. That's a problem. But so is spending hours just finding the stuff that is actually in it. What kind of an a-hole publishes an 800+ page directory without an index. FAIL.
