The Art Of Frank Howell

Synopsis

FRANK HOWELL'S PAINTINGS dazzle the viewer with their luminous colors and haunting images. A unique chronicler of the native people and natural beauty of the Southwest, Howell pulls us into a spiritually charged world resonant with multiple meanings. Whether he's painting a pair of hands, a bird in flight, or the face of an old woman, Howell can look upon the familiar and see something no one else sees. His sense of wonder and his passion make his often solitary figures enormously expressive; they inhabit a physically spare but spiritually rich universe that Howell reveals through his extraordinary artistry.

Customer Reviews

“Michael French's accompanying biographical text is informative, delivering insight into Howell's life and how it shaped him into a celebrated painter. But the real treasure here is in Howell's own comments about his paintings.” —Santa Fe New Mexican

"When one stands before any kind of art, it should tell nothing. It should, however, create the infinity of questions begetting questions. It should be a mirror that is not superficial, in that it reflects the physical self. That reflection is emotional and historical but it is a pathway to insight into a more spiritually significant present."-- Frank Howell

Just love his work. This is a beautiful collection and story.

What more can I say. I'm a fan of Frank Howell's artwork. I have several of his books setting on shelves displayed as artwork like you would a picture. I just feel like I could reach out and touch them and they would be real. The way he creates hair is amazing.

Very nice prints well done thanks

So glad to have found this book that has so many of Frank Howell's art. After visiting the gallery in Santa Fe many times and seeing some of these very same pictures displayed, what enjoyment to be able to pick up this book and enjoy them at home. The history of Frank Howell was interesting as he lived in our area at one time. Great book, pretty pictures.
