Collage German class, you really need this book. It covers the grammar rules well plus on their web site they have guides for different collage text books to focus what pages to use in this book as you progress through your collage text book.

German grammar rules are really hard to get used to for English-speaking people, but this and similar books are very helpful in answering questions and providing great examples.

This book is a must for anyone learning German if you were not an English major in College! It clearly and concisely explains the main points of English grammar that are not taught in our schools anymore.

Great reference source. Would recommend for individuals or to faculty as a supplement to textbooks.

This book really helps you understand the elements of both English and German language.

Awesome, helpful book. I had to order a copy for my sister who actually lives in Germany now.

An awesome guide to point you in the right direction and make learning a language clear.

I bought this as a gift for someone else.
