Customer Reviews

Not much to say other than it's exactly what's advertised -- the Federal Rules of Evidence. This is a pocket version of the rules that's perfect for my briefcase or desk -- whenever I need to quickly look things up.

This is a perfect pocket sized version of the FRE. It isn't tiny like most pocket versions of books, but it isn't so large as to make it cumbersome to lug around or to get to things quickly. It also isn't filled with superfluous junk that you really wouldn't care about while taking a law school exam. It is perfect and I would recommend for anyone taking evidence in law school.

Potential customers should note that This is only a puny 40-page 6 X 8-inch paper desk reference and not the publication itself, which runs over a thousand pages, a fact that was omitted or, at best, minimized to the point of invisibility in the ad.
