Customer Reviews

First of all, I would like to thank the author of this book, Jesse Notheimer for coming up with a simple yet very interesting book. For me, keeping the fire of romance in the relationship alive and burning is really essential and would surely benefit both parties in one way and another. Most women are naturally romantic but very few men are born with this characteristic. Majority of men has no idea on know how to be romantic or, just prefer not to be one, since being romantic is commonly not associated to being manly. This book shows how men can impress and make a woman happy by being romantic in very simple ways. The tips provided in this book are easy to follow, that men can definitely adapt fast and incorporate in their daily lives. What I also love about this book is that it's short and simple but is jam packed with all the information needed. To all the guys out there who are having trouble with being romantic and pleasing their partners, this book might be the secret weapon you'll need.

Waste of money. Seriously. Don't buy this. Like two pages of common sense.

What I liked about this book was that instead of just being common information restated, she goes into depth about how to actually bond with someone. It is One thing to know someone's "love language" but this book mentions trust bonding and HOW TO DO IT. I also liked that the author mentioned WHEN to do WHAT TYPE of gestures. Very well done. This is the road map to any woman's heart.

Great book. Highlights the many possible ways on how and why romance is an essential part of every relationship. A must read!

I'm sure it's a great book. Now, if I only get my husband to pick it up & read it!

I got this for my so i could have give some new ideas to my friend who wants to charm his lady. It's easy to read and understand and i'm hoping these tips will work superb.

It is simple and straightforward. It does not cover all the things but what it says are essential. Worth the time to read.

A nice sensible book about Romance that gives you some very good tips on how to make your spouse feel special. The book highlights the importance of listening to your spouse, giving here respect, understanding her needs, showing your trust and making some gestures of love from time to time. All the suggestions made are easy to follow and implement and yet seem to be very powerful. Good tips for the guys out there who are looking to impress their gals and really prosper their romantic relationship !
