Sally Ann Wright (autora) se formÃ³ como docente y actualmente estÃ¡ casada y tiene cuatro hijos. Ha enseÃ±ado en escuelas dominicales, participa activamente en su iglesia local y ha escrito varias Biblias para niÃ±os, asÃ­ como otros materiales didÃ¡cticos para niÃ±os.

All in all its basic, short, and nice. Every other page shares a different idea/story and there are 14 pages, one with the words and the other pictures. Now they are not stories, really, but rather the main ideas of the story so as to explain to an infant. Each "story/idea" is about 4-5 sentences. But it's nice, definitely too short if you are wanting to read Bible stories to a young child. My baby is 7 months so this works for now, but when she turns 1 I will find something with more depth. Another issue that I feel I must disclose is that the edges of the pages are very rough, I am always concerned that my baby will cut herself if I let her play with it :/ so I try to keep it out of her hands. Not really the best thing as babies tend to want everything they see you holding. For a bedtime reading type of thing I like it, but I would not have purchased if I had seen it in stores.

The book is board book for children filled with bible stories like Noah and the Arc, the Birth of Christ, etc. it's nice to find a good book in Spanish and a board book which my godson can read and play with on his own. He has his regular children's bible but this one is good because he can use it alone, look at the photos and seems like it will stand up to the use of a baby whereas most bibles you keep on the shelf away from a child and they don't get to read it themselves.

Cute little book that we gave to our baby cousin. The Bible says "Train up a child in the way they should go," so it's never too early to start with Bible stories. Well printed, nice and simple, but meaningful Bible stories for your little one.

Great simple bible for my 6 month old. Of course, she's too small to understand any of it but she tends to like the pictures and eventually will learn these stories by memory. Not many words for each story so if you are looking for something with more details, may want to consider another bible but if you want something simple and to the point, definitely the bible for you!

realmente me gusto mucho esta Biblia para leerla a mi bebe, especialmente porque sus dibujos son grandes y las historias adaptadas a la edad de ellos. buena opción, vale su precio, la recomiendo.

The Bible stories here are cute. The words flow nicely and my son enjoys listening to the stories and looking at the drawings.

Sweet illustrations and timeless stories that you'll want to pass on to your little one. I love this book as much as my grandson.

This is a beautifully concise text for Spanish-speaking or multilingual children to become very familiar with Bible stories. The language in it is great, and the illustrations are cute. I really like it quite a lot.
