Customer Reviews

It is unfortunate that both in books and real life, it seems like everything happens at once! In this case, Holly has to dread Adam's parent's visit, help deal with something going on in town regarding vampires, and deal with her SPA agent's surprise visit, all while working part time at Siren's Song. Of course nothing can go smoothly. Adam's parents like Evangeline better than Holly. Nick is on a cheating husband case that Holly goes with him once she sees a powerful vampire necklace on his client's neck. Harvey (SPA agent that banished her to Beechwood Harbor) nearly catches Holly making potions when he first arrives, and discovers some in her backpack and arrests her. Just as he is leading the handcuffed Holly to the portal to the Seattle haven, Adam's parents arrive and witness her departure. Holly is a fast thinker and talker, and manages to strike a deal with Harvey. She will investigate and report vampire activities to him and be allowed to stay. Of course no potion making is allowed. But Harvey is willing to lend his assistance to becoming a licensed potion master if she keeps her word. So leaving Adam and parents to their own devices, she is on the job with Nick and on her own. While I enjoyed this book, it seemed a little overwhelming at times with the activities Holly had going on. Perhaps it was the vampires that made me not like this book quite as well as the others. Whatever the case, there were some low points in the book that I wish had been handled differently. This is a series that definitely needs to be read in order. It is nice to have a series that straddles the human and supernatural worlds like this.

This is continuation of the series, it is a great book to read, an easy book to follow, you could read it alone, but if you are like me, I like to start a series from the beginning, Holly and Adam's relationship is going along well, but like all relationship, there comes a time when they have to meet the parents, and of course, Holly gets nervous, and who did not get nervous meeting the parents, meanwhile trouble seems to follow Holly and she gets involved in a mystery and so she really doesn't get to spend a lot of time with the parents, but not that it matters because the parents wants Adam to go back to the haven and find someone who is more suitable for him in the eyes of the parents, and of course, Adam doesn't agree with that, he loves Holly and Holly loves Adam....well her SPA agent comes to visit and finds out that she is still running her potions business but she manages to strike a deal in order to stay out of paranormal jail.....well without going to details, you will have to read the book but it is a nice book and that is all what I am going to say about it, if you are interested, and I am sure you are going to be, READ THE BOOK!!!! I can assure you, you will like it!!!!

A fantastic series that is getting addictive. Holly the witch can't catch a break. Especially since her SPA agent showed up. He is determined to put Holly in jail. She is having ups and downs with her Shifter boyfriend. Will things ever settle down for her? All she wants is her own potions shop. This is a great read and believe me you will love it. So fun!

I could not put this book down. You can always tell a great authors work because they don't use a lot of Gore or sex to tell the story. The mystery and the way the story is told gives a classy tale that implies those things, but it is left to the imagination and throw in fabulous characters and you can't put the book down.

Once again Ms. Garrett has charmed with great characters, great writing and a great storyline. And this time there were some pretty creepy/scary villains. Ready for my next adventure with the whole family at the Manor

Great addition to the series. Once again, thoroughly enjoyable

very enjoyable storys

It's quirky, funny and has lots of little twists that keeps you guessing. The mystery isn't predictable. I really like the series
