Customer Reviews

..,"pleasing-to-the-eye introductions to correct behavior, especially suitable for classroom use."..,"The writing is clear, no nonsense. The correct behavior is highlighted through an example...followed by the sentence "He [or she or they] is [or are] using good manners," which strengthens the message....Especially suitable for classroom use..." --This text refers to an out of print or unavailable edition of this title.

Amanda Doering Tourville is the author of more than 15 books for children. Her book Rain Forest ABC: An Alphabet Book (Capstone Press, 2004) was nominated for the 2005-2006 Mocking Bird Award. The same book was also on the American Library Association's booklist of Outstanding Science Read-Alouds. Amanda currently lives in St. Paul, Minnesota, with her husband and her chinchilla. She loves animals and would have an entire zoo if she could. She also enjoys traveling and photographing wonderful, exotic places. Her photography has been featured in books and magazines.

This was a great book to read to my kindergarten students at the beginning of the school year. I plan on reading it again in January after the Christmas break. It has all the manners that need to be used in a lunchroom setting.

I work with kids at school who get in trouble. Many problems are cleared up by teaching social skills they don't have yet. This book is a good helper Excellent product!! Definitely recommend!! :)

Great book for beginning of the year expectations for the primary grades.

Great book to read to elementary school kids at the beginning of the school year.

Excellent book for my preschoolers.

Hoping to use the first week of school.

Kids loved it
