Customer Reviews

" this book is very cute, fun, beautiful, sometimes sexy, and altogether Roxy." â "Transworld Surf, April 2008

Natalie Linden, who interviewed The Roxy Girls for this book, is a freelance writer and brand strategist for Roxy. She lives in San Francisco.

Got this as a gift my 10 year old niece. She loved it (even though it's just a book). High quality photography, binding and good material. I took off a star as it might be a bit racy for younger girls (which I believe Roxy targets) but it's possible that I'm just a square. I'd buy it again.

Great photos, perfect addition to any surfer girl's library!!!!

This is a great book and the photos and info are very informative

These girls exude freshness and warmth! They make their profession look easy with their passion and camaraderie. There were so many pictures that amazed me in both the action of the moment and the skill of getting the shot (and this book is lush with them), and the commentaries on the sport, the girls' lifestyles, events and hangout settings were uniquely tailor-made, winkingly expressive and welcoming. I imagine this book to be a hearty, encouraging "pat on the back" to all those who live the surf-life; and for those of us who don't (or not as often), this inviting read will cover you with the smiles, sunny sands and ever-present waves of the ROXY Surf-Girl world! I got the feeling from this book that there's always room made for anyone who wants to come along for the ride, if only to share in the experience of the ride, so, "Aloha"!

Great photos, great stories. A really nice book about a brand that has done a lot to advance women's surfing.

Fun book, gives a nice photo history of surf girls. Beautiful photos and beautiful girls and waves. check it out
