Klaus-Dieter John: Hope In The Land Of The Incas (Christian Heroes: Then & Now) (Christian Heroes Then And Now)

Synopsis

It was totally dark. The lights in the city were turned off, and there were no street lamps, no neon signs, and no extra glow in shop windows. Klaus noticed that theirs was the only car on the road. How would they slip by the checkpoint? Klaus glanced at his wife Tina, whose eyes were shut in prayer. Suddenly he heard a thunderous crash, then saw a bright flash of light. Klaus-Dieter John (1960-) dreamed of becoming a medical missionary in the developing world. He would do whatever it took -- study in top universities and practice surgery in remote and dangerous places -- to reach his goal of providing health care for people who needed it most. Dr. John's seemingly impossible vision of Diospi-Suyana, a world-class hospital for impoverished Peruvians deep in the Andes Mountains, was blessed by God to the end. Despite challenges in fund-raising, construction, moving his family from Germany, and countless roadblocks, Klaus's dream was finally realized, bringing hope in a land loved by God.

Thoroughly enjoyed this book documenting the life of this visionary, mission-minded physician that is truly making a world-class contribution to the poorest of the poor in the mountains of Peru. Having visited the hospital and being deeply impressed, I was doubly interested in the story behind the story. I bought copies for all my grandchildren, believing that the influence of an inspiring biography will shape a young life. Highly recommended.

Great riveting story. I am always encouraged and challenge in my faith for Christ when I read these books.
