Loved the book as always when reading Sandra Brown.

Great story. Lots of twist and turns. Ms. Brown always keeps you on your toes.

When I ordered this audio book I didn't even bother to look at the description of what it was about because I have bought all of Sandra Brown's audio books so I expected a good mystery. Instead it was love story - boring at that - and the audio book was very graphic. I normally give my mother all of my audio books but this was way to graphic. I felt like I was listening to a triple xxx audio book. From reading the previous reviews I now realize this book was written in 1985. I wish now I had taken the time to read the description before I bought it.

It is a great book full of humor.

Loved it

Great Book. A new and very good condition. A novel about family relationships, romantic and inspiration for everyone who reading the books and didn't find it in the libraries,like me, take your time and buy it on .

Always enjoy her books. I look forward to reading her books and always on the lookout for new next one.

I like Sandra Brown but this book was not my style. Its about a morning show where Brin meets Riley. Brin is the new producer and Riley is the star. At first Brin doesn't like Riley but as they start working together things change. After a few months the run off to get married. they click in every way. One day Brin doesn't go into work and Riley is worried so he tries calling her but no answer. When he gets home he finds a note stating she has left him. After seven months of waiting Riley decides to show up unannounced on Brin's door he wants answers and he's not leaving till he gets them
