My 2 year old son loves the Pookie books. This is one we read almost every night before bed and always a few times. This story is about Pookies' bed time routine with Mom. He has his funny little responses that my son thinks are hilarious, especially when Mom gives kisses in the book ( I give my son kisses with it and he just cracks up!) I just love the relationship between Mom and Pookie and I love the bonding time I get to have with my son with this book. We love just about all Sandra Boynton books but this has become a favorite! This is a great book for Toddlers as it pretty much sums up your night time routine.

This book is/has been a favorite for both of my children as one of the first books they loved and would ask to read over and over again (starting around 15 months old). This is our go-to to gift to new parents as well. The story is short and cute, going through Pookie's bedtime routine, and my children like finding Pookie on the pages where he is hiding. There are only a handful of books that are loved by both my children (who have very different temperaments and personalities) and my 4-year-old still chooses the Pookie books for her bedtime story sometimes, which I think speaks to the broad appeal of this series. Another absolute favorite is the "Going to Bed Book" also by Sandra Boynton.

I absolutely adore Sandra Boynton's book, and this is, by far, her best. The tender story of a mom and her child, Pookie, perfectly encapsulates toddler bedtimes with wry good humor and love. I've bought copies for other new mothers, and have read this favorite to my daughter so many times that I can recite it by heart. The rhyme at the end means this transcends your typical picture book. I also appreciate the fact that the Pookie books aren't explicitly gendered. Pookie could be an impish boy *or* girl. Who doesn't like pajamas with stars?!

Sweet story for a new mom and baby. Bought this to read to her as an infant. Don't wait to start reading to your baby!

This book is super cute. I absolutely love Sandra Boynton. My favorite part about this book is how my 20 month old son picks it up and calls, "Oh Poooookie!" like the mommy pig does in the book. It is adorable!

My son loves this book! He's rough with it, which is why we had to order another one, but he loves it. Would recommend for any toddler!

Love this book! We read it every night.

We love this book. It is in our nighttime book rotation constantly. We love all of Sandra Boyntons book actually. Also, i highly recommend the Dinosaurs Binkit book by her as well, our daughter cant get enough of it.
