Sweet stories with orthodox teachings about God. My only criticism is the use of slang such as "whoa!" And "wanna". This is problematic if the stories are used to teach kids how to read by themselves. Proper English would be better and the stories would not be any less charming.

This is a great book (3 in 1) I purposely purchased for God gave us heaven. My brother in law recently passed away so I bought for my sons and my niece (his daughter). This book speaks to children and allowed for great conversation about what happens after death! Highly recommend

This book has beautiful illustrations and wonderful themes, but it's extremely wordy. My three year old grandson lost interest pretty quickly. Maybe it would appeal more to older children

Really good book for kids easy to read and easy for children to understand and good value three books in one for less money

Our little guy will soon be 4 and he thoroughly enjoys this and other books in the Good Gave Us... series. This morning he reminded me that God loves me. How is it that kids know what we need when we need it?

LOVE this book! Bought it for my grand daughter and she loves it. All of Lisa Bergren's books are so sweet and I think I have them all and will buy again for the next grand child.

Can read alone good pics will read self better than silly stories to shape young persons outlook

So nicely presented, even adults can benefit from reading this and all the others in this collection. I was so impressed I have purchased two sets - one for my grandchildren and another for my nephew.
