Madagascar Highlights (Bradt Travel Guide Madagascar Highlights)

Synopsis

This is the only concise guide to Madagascar's highlights. Madagascar has been a specialist wildlife destination for decades, but mainstream tourism is now on the up with a range of boutique hotels to entice travelers to this naturalist's Promised Land. This beautifully photographed guide caters for all short-stay visitors bringing you the absolute highlights of the country. Detailed maps include the six places most favored by tour operators, and a birders' map identifies key locations to spot birds. A chapter on conservation discusses the island's projects and outlines how you can help.

Customer Reviews

'Madagascar Highlights will leave you brushing imaginary red soil from your shoes and sniffing phantom vanilla beans in the air. Austin and Bradt's evocative guide couples the authority of long experience with a child's bursting enthusiasm. When you pack your bags for Madagascar, don't forget it.' Peter Tyson Author, 'Madagascar: The Eighth Continent'

Daniel Austin is a naturalist and photographer who spent more than a year exploring Madagascar. Hilary Bradt is founder of Bradt Travel Guides and has visited Madagascar more than 30 times as a tour leader.
