"The publisher's reputation for exceptionally fine photography is on display hereâ |" —Booklist

Anita Croy has written many books for childrenâ "mainly about geography and historyâ "including National Geographic Investigates Ancient Pueblo: Archaeology Unlocks the Secrets of America's Past, Inca Gold, and several National Geographic Countries of the World titles. She holds a doctorate in Latin American studies from the University of London.

It's a kids book, so you can read it in 1 hour. I made the mistake of thinking it was a real National Geographic book. I donated it to charity afterwards. A few errors I also found, like "Mesa Verde National Park is in Arizona", is it actually in Montezuma County, Colorado. The authors misspelled Pueblo once, too.
